My deepest condolences and prayers to the Roque family and all who mourn the passing of Daryl. As classmates at South High, Daryl and I shared various classes including art class. I will always remember what a fantastic artist he was and the great sense of humor he had. We had alot of laughs back then. May the Good Lord grant Daryl a place of rest in his kingdom of heaven and may he be of comfort to the Roque family and all of us who mourn his passing. RIP Daryl.
Sincerely, John Moorcoft
