I'm missing my dad tonight, and wish that I could just pick up the phone and call him. I miss the talks and many laughs we had together, the times we went to rodeos together and the times we spent doing many things together. Dad was my greatest hero and I know that he inspired all those who came in contact with him.
My greatest hope and expectation is that I will someday be reunited with him and we will again rejoice in each others company! Thank you LORD for allowing me to be his son and for the time you allowed him to remain on this earth, And thank you for saving him from a life of sin, so that he could share your love and the gospel with many people. A great example of a Godly man!
I can picture him full of joy when he rides his white stallion!

And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. Revelation 19:14
