To the Family of Yolanda,
My deepest condolences on the loss of your Mother and my Comadre Yolanda. She baptized my daughter, Bonita Raigoza(Pope) back in 1973 and was a very good friend of our family. I'm sorry that we lost touch with your family but after all these years we still hold her with great esteem. Her Godchild, Bonita, now resides in Texas with her family and I have sent her the obituary so that she will keep her in her prayers as she and you all are also in mine. God Bless You all during this difficult time. I will offer a Mass for your Mother very soon at St. Leanders Catholic Church.
Sincerely,
Arlene Raigoza
