

Daniel Aaron Gallegos

November 5, 1968 - July 15, 2019

Daniel, affectionately known as Aaron, 50, of Pueblo, Colorado passed away unexpectedly on July 15, 2019. He was preceded in death by his father, Danny Gallegos; nephew, Henry "Scooby" Smith and stepdad, Pete Glueck. He is survived by his best friend and loving wife, Claudine Gallegos; mother, whom he loved so much, Nancy Glueck; children, Natalie Manzanares, Jackie (Emilio) Esquibel, Manuel Esquibel and Ashley (Monica) Rodriguez; grandchildren, whom he loved and cherished with all his heart, Damien, Nathaniel, Kiana, Gabriel, Emilio II, and his baby girl, Jocelyn; sister, Christine Gallegos; sister-in-law, Jenny "Becka" Mestas; in-laws, Roger and Bernice Esquibel; numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends to numerous to mention. Aaron was a diesel mechanic and worked on everything for everyone; you could put pretty much anything in front of him and he could take it apart and put it back together again. He loved going to the park and spending time with his grandchildren and cooking for his wife. YouTube was Aaron's pastime when it came to music, Family Feud and how-to videos. He had an extremely big and generous heart and would give the shirt off his back to anyone in need. He will be greatly missed by all who loved and knew him.

“ Me and Hazel miss you so much. I remember when you taught her how to walk with her three legs. You didn't treat like she was a 3legged dog. she strong because of you and your time that you trained her. I miss you so much and love you. Thank you for everything you did for me and my kids and grandkids. You are gone but will be never forgotten my love. RIP Aaron

“ There are so many memories that this space couldn't hold them all. Mostly they are cherished remembrances of friends hanging out, brothers doing crazy things, fixing the impossibly broken cars, traumatizing one poor turkey, stinky shoes and lots of laughter. Aaron, you enriched our lives and you will be remembered always. Rest in Peace our dear friend.
