

Gary Ortega

May 2, 2020

Gary Ortega, 44, passed away on May 2, 2020. He is preceded in death by his mother Marina; father, Andres; sister, Martha; and brother, Jesus. He is survived by his children, Cisco, Mari and Bryanna Ortega; grandchildren, Ava, Analaya, Xavier and Violet; mother of his children, Crystal Duran; brothers, Andres (Misty) Ortega and Adolph Garcia; sister, Sencery (Benny) King; numerous nieces and nephews; extended family and friends. Gary was a devoted Denver Bronco fan who loved the outdoors and enjoyed cooking and barbequing. He will be forever loved and deeply missed by all those he leaves behind. Private Family Service with Live stream through Facebook, 10:00 am, Wednesday.

Comments

“ I always think of us walking through the arroyos trying to act tough till one of us yells out la llorona!! And we would take off running lol miss you my bro good times I will love you forever my bro... Louie Samora

Louie Samora - May 12, 2020 at 11:15 PM

“ Andres Ortega lit a candle in memory of Gary Ortega

Andres Ortega - May 12, 2020 at 11:52 AM

“ Gary and I have been best friends since we were 13 years old we had our good and bad times but real homies always stick together I have so many memories to share only one so I just want you to know my brother that I love you you are always going to be in my heart and prayers and as long as I'm alive your memory I will never let die I sure am going to miss hanging out with you and drinking a beer and just talking like we used to Rest in paradise brother until we meet again in heaven your bro sapo

Eddie valdez - May 11, 2020 at 01:22 PM

“ 2 files added to the album Gary

Andres Ortega - May 09, 2020 at 10:45 PM

“ I'm so sorry. I'm not sure you remember me. My name is Barbara Martinez from the red rocks. My man used to always tell you guys " quit throwing rocks lol" Gary was way to cool. So much respect.

Barbara - May 10, 2020 at 01:25 PM