He was preceded in death by his parents, Earl and Maye Clay and Garfield and Nancy Ogletree. Jimmy is survived by his longtime companion, Kathy Spence; daughter, Joanna Clay; siblings, Nancy Kellem, Roger, Clay and Jack D. Clay; sister-in-law, Cathy Clay; brother-in-law, Marion Kellem; nieces and nephews, Scott Clay, Kasey Loehner, Melinda Clay, Sara Clay, Emily Drake and Bethany Plemons; and extended family and friends. in Oklahoma, Florida and Colorado. He attended and graduated Moore High School in Moore Oklahoma and graduated in 1967. He then received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Southwestern Oklahoma University in 1974. Jimmy also was a proud veteran, and he served in the United States Navy and received an Honorable Discharge in 1974. Jimmy was a very good businessman at an early age working in sales, banking, collections, and retired after many years working successfully in the insurance business. He had many interests in life which included gardening, researching, traveling, building, remodeling, learning new technology and watching college ball, especially his favorite football team Oklahoma University Sooners. Spending time researching and finding new organic healthy ways of eating and living was a big passion of his and he would share what he learned with those he loved. He always had a dream to explore new places and made the move from Ada, Oklahoma to Colorado City, Colorado shortly before his passing and was able to enjoy the beautiful mountain views and smile. Jimmy will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him dearly. A Memorial Service will be set at a later date at the Lilac Hill Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Moore, Oklahoma. In Lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Jimmy Earl Clay's memory with the Keukemia Research Foundation. <https://www.allbloodcancers.org> or by Mail 191 Waukegan Road, Ste 105 Northfield, IL 60093
