He is survived by his parents, John and Martha Baros; siblings, John Baros, Theresa (Ray) Turek, Veltrum Baros, Judy (Andrew) Vrell, Anthony Baros and Veronica Baros; numerous nieces, nephews and friends. RB was an avid Raiders fan who loved his mama, family and God. He was a firefighter and worked on the hot shot fire crew in California for most of his younger years. Later, he was the fourth of six children to follow his mama and papa home to Pueblo, where he started his sprinkler and landscaping business. RB always found time for fun, enjoyed rafting down the Arkansas River, playing tennis and bowling. He loved fishing at Runyon and San Isabel. He loved to laugh and cut up, play pool, have drinks at the bar and listen to music. One of his favorite songs that he sang to his mama was “Don’t Let No One Get You Down” by War. RB handpicked his crew for his new office (I.O.I.) at The Eastside Tavern, to build the walking stick trail in Pueblo. He was loved by many from the Eastside Tavern to The Gils Westside and many friends to numerous to mention... you all know who you are! Recently, R.B. accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior and talked about being ready to meet Him! He will be so deeply missed by all who knew and loved him and who he loved in return.
