“ My condolences to the entire Guerin family. I thank you for allowing me to be a part of your father's life. He was my dearest of friends. Always an open heart and door, filled with love and laughter. A voice of thunder and hugs with warmth and words of wisdom, a life of joyous memories. His children were his world. His charming smile is unforgettable. My favorite saying of his was " can you stand on your head and spin nickles?" He truly was my hero and will live forever in my heart as Uncle Abel. The mistro the legend. RIP my twinkle blue star

Abel was a really good friend of my dad, John T. They were best friends, they argued and fought like a married couple, but were always there for each other, hanging out at the TIRE KING. He will be sadly missed by the LUCERO FAMILY.
