

Adeline C. Mangum

March 18, 2020

Adeline C. Mangum, 84. of Pueblo was called home on March 18, 2020. She was the wife of Jack W. Mangum who preceded her in death. They shared 54 years of marriage. Born in Starkville, Colorado on November 16, 1935 she was the daughter of Andres and Rachel Sandoval who also precede her in death as well as a brother John Sandoval and a sister Betty Sandoval. She is survived by her siblings, Rosalie Mestas, Evelyn (Leroy) Romero and Richard (Louise) Sandoval; children, Joni (Don) Compton, Jackie (John) Berry and Jodi (Tom) Beckett; grandchildren, AJ Aguilera, Andrew (Arika) Aguilera, Melissa Navarrette, Emily Sharon and James Beckett; two great grandchildren; other beloved family members. Adeline lived in Colorado most of her life. She will be remembered for her unwavering faith, witty humor and sense of family. Her joys were cooking, gardening, spending time with her grandchildren and her Lord Jesus Christ. A family gathering to celebrate her life will be held at a later date.
