“ I first met Adrian when i was 18, eager and ready for a tattoo. Over the next few years mutual friends and events steered our paths in the same direction. I quickly learned that this man was someone i looked up to. A close friend, a brother. In 2012 i decided to move out to colorado and he was one of the last feiends i got see before the big move day. He disapeard into his room and came out wih a shirt . The shirt itself was a bit of an inside joke. He was the master of lightening the mood. I miss you friend, brother, comrade.
