“ My sincere condolences to the family of my dear friend (hermanita) Alicia. I met Alicia when I worked for the City and we did some work at her home. I used to go to her house and do paperwork for her. She was always a pleasure to visit and she always talked about how proud she was of her children and grandchildren. She missed brother Pete so much and always talked about their life together. She is now with him and in the presence of our Lord. May God comfort you all during these difficult days. You are in my prayers. God bless you all.
