

Amalia Delphine Avina

May 26, 1937 - September 18, 2016

Amalia Delphine “Del” “Non” Avina, 79, of Pueblo, passed away on September 18, 2016 in Pueblo. Del was born in Walsenburg, CO, to Helen and Adolph Lopez on May 26, 1937. She went to school at Central High School in Pueblo. She married Jesus Avina in 1957. She is known in the community for helping young people and took care of dozens of children throughout the years. Del always welcomed a neighborhood child who needed money or food, and would give them a pep talk before sending them on their way. She enjoyed cooking, baking and traveling, but most of all, she enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Del is preceded in death by her parents, Helen and Adolph Lopez. Del is survived by her husband and high school sweetheart of 61 years Jesus Avina; children, Jess (Jean Leier) Avina, Wayne (Loretta Lucero) Avina, Brian (Denise) Dutton and Dominic (Stephanie Chavez) Dutton; sister Beatrice Lucero; grandchildren Anastasia and Mariya; great aunt Adeline Aragon; nephew Richard Aragon; niece Louise Aragon and numerous family and friends. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Sangre de Cristo Hospice and Palliative Care of Pueblo or the Alzheimer’s Association at alz.org. The family of Del wishes to extend our sincere thanks to the medical staffs at Parkview Hospital and Sangre de Cristo Hospice and Palliative Care; and to the many family and friends who gave their love and support through this difficult time.

“ Nonnie will be missed by so many, she was always so thoughtful of others and so caring and full of life. She shared her love and compassion with all. Her smile would brighten anyone's day. May she rest in peace and enjoy heaven with her 5th St. friends. She left us all with wonderful memories. She was a great friend especially to my grandmother her neighbor, maria. I know you two are smiling and look down over all of us. We love you nonnie.

“ Nonnie was apart of my family for as long as I can remember. She was the most loving person you could meet. I played at her house and a kid she was my granny's best friend. She will be missed so much. Not seeing her in her yard or on the porch are coming to the fence to say hi it's going to be hard. From the Rivas and Bachicha family we love you and will miss u a bunch ♡♡♡♡♡♡♡♡♡♡

“ I only had the pleasure of her company three times. Already at our first meeting I recognized her giving ways; how she took so many in that her own living space became crowded and the extra work may have jeopardized her health & physical strength, but her heart could not say "no" to those in need. She knew the true meaning of life. Now that her life on earth is finished, may she rest in peace and our loving God hold all those she loved so deeply in his warm embrace as they mourn her loss.
