“ Amaya was my cousin. she was one of the sweetest most creative people i knew. she has the brightest smile that just lit up the whole world. she day she was taken from us is a day i relive everyday. i just can't believe that she's gone, forever. i'll miss her smile, her laugh, her sass, and the way she always side eyed me when i went to check on her when she was at my house. i will forever cherish our memories from when we were kids, they are some of my favorite memories i've ever had. my favorite memories are when me and amaya were younger, before electronics were introduced, and we would just play for hours and hours. we would play inside, outside, and we were never bored because amaya always came up with the best games. ever day it gets harder and every day i miss her more and more, but i know she wouldn't want me to be sad, i know she didn't wanna hurt anyone, so im gonna be strong for her.

“ I never knew Amaya personally. But I remember the first day she came into boys and girls club at Central. I saw her and when she walked up I told her she was beautiful and she smiled and said the same thing back to me. We talked for a little bit and it felt like I had known her forever. She was so sweet and beautiful. May she rest in peace.

“ I never got time to know Amaya fully, but by God she was the sweetest someone could be. I sat next to her in art and she would always help when I needed it with no questions asked or judgement. She used to bring me my project so I didn't need to get up when I wasn't feeling good, even though I told her I could get it. She was kind, she was intelligent, and she was strong. I miss you in class Amaya. May you rest in eternal peace ❤️

“ I'm so sorry for your loss of Amaya. I used to volunteer at Heritage Elementary in the classroom. My twins Samantha and Melanie knew her. She was always so sweet, quiet, and polite. Sending prayers and hugs from all of us.
