“ Sad loss of one of the kindest and brightest among us. I met Amy (née Dotson) in the mid seventies. Our friendship was cemented quickly, and has lasted thru the years. We shared personal ups and downs, and I was fortunate enough to work in the same office with her. My condolences to family and friends who feel the loss. One of the best is now with the heavenly angels.

“ Amy was a great friend to me for many years. We worked together, laughed and cried together and simply shared our lives. There's not enough good in this world to describe both her and Lenny. Bless you both at this sad time.
