

Angela Leanore Cascio

October 1, 1936 - March 31, 2015

Angela Leanore Cascio will always be remembered in the hearts of her family and friends. The love she shared as a wife, mother, daughter, sister, niece, cousin and friend to many was treasured. Angela left this world on March 31, 2015 with her loving children by her side. She was the older of two daughters born to Ernest & Sevilla Martinez in Pagosa Springs, Colorado. Her family moved to Pueblo when she was fifteen years of age. She attended Centennial High and began working at Newberry's in 1953. Her career in personnel began at the Parkview Hospital in 1969 she later moved to Transportation Test Center. Angela eventually retired from St. Mary Corwin Hospital in Management. One of Angela's passions was antique glass and furniture. She owned and operated Victorianna's Antique Store on Union Avenue for over ten years. Left to honor Angela's life and mourn her death are five children Robin (Doug Casias) Palmer, Rosalind White, Rhondelle (Mark) Blankenship, Robert Weldon, and Rodney (Dana) Cascio-Weldon; her beloved grandchildren Marie, Jacque, Allen, Devin, Victoria, Christianna, Andrea, Alex, Amanda, Alexandria, Alicia, Arianna, Stefanie, Jessica, Niko, Shelby, Mariah and sister Yolinda Smith; great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and many friends. Preceded in death and there to welcome Angela to heaven is her husband of 41 years, Carl 'Sonny' Cascio and her parents, Ernest and Sevilla Martinez. Angela had many good friends who have been loyal to her. Her Luncheon group has remained bonded for over thirty five years. Her Canasta card group has been going strong for many years. If you were to ask her, she would say, "I have never met a stranger". As a family we would like to thank Frontier Hospice especially Darlene, Liz and Melinda; our extended family and our dearest friends. May Angela soar above the clouds and be free.
