“ Annette and I met in Middle-School. I was in her wedding and she was in mine. Over the years we never lost touch because she always took the time to write letters (when living overseas), send photos, call and visit me and my family. She treated me like a sister and I will always remember her smile and laugh. One thing very clear to me was her dedication and love towards her family (our deepest heartfelt condolences). RIP my sweet and beautiful friend.
