“ I miss you. I miss you spending weekends at my house. I miss watching old western movies with you. I miss hearing all of your stories about you growing up and working in the coal mines. I miss dinners at Wishbone. I miss seeing you at church every Sunday. I miss your laugh. I miss your smile. Even though I miss you, I am so happy for you. I'm happy knowing that you are in heaven, forever with Jesus Christ. I'm happy that you have no more pain and no more suffering. I'm happy that you have reunited with your loved ones that went home before you. I'm happy that you were a part of my life. I'm happy that I will see you again.

“ I’ve known Anthony for a long time. He was a good man and would help anybody out. I hope you are with your wife and look it down on everybody. I love Christina and her family very much and I know it’s hard on them. All I can say is to hold your head up and life goes on.
