“ I was a kid when Antoinette and Bernard married. I'll always remember their wedding party was dressed in the colors of the rainbow. My sisters dress color was orange. I said I wanted the same for my wedding and had a rainbow wedding party too. Chris and I want to express our condolences to the whole family. Hoping as time passes, your sorrow will ease. 🙏❤️

“ Bernie & Family, I thank Jesus for our neighbor and dear friend. She was a true blessing from God. So much Love for everyone she knew. Like you said in her obituary , the best cheerleader to everyone. She prayed for my mom to make it back home from the hospital and assured me she would be ok. My mom came home yesterday! She had so much faith & love. She was the best!! I will miss seeing both of you sitting outside every summer evening. I will miss her goodbyes every Thursday when I left my moms. I will miss her always. God needed his beautiful Angel back. Much love and prayers. Yvonne and Mestas Family 🙏❤️🙏😭

“ I met Antionette and Bernie a few years ago. When she found out I lived in a small place called Fort Reynolds, I found out she came from Avondale . She also knew some of my sibilings, had gone to school with some of them. So we had a lot to talk about as we knew a lot of the same people from back then. I always liked visiting with Antionette, she was a lot of fun, not a dull moment when she was around. RIP my friend your life was cut to short. You will be missed by many...Liz LaForme

“ My deepest condolences to Antoinette family .So sad to hear of her passing. Antoinette I always enjoyed her friendship through the years in school. When her and Bernard would see me through the years after we were out of school They would always stop and talk to me .our visits were so nice. She remembered me and Bernard always asked about my brother. May God bless and comfort all of the family. Will be in my thoughts and Prayers.

“ Auntie,
This all seems so unreal. I texted you on Sunday and you were gone the next day. I want to thank you for making my Uncle Bernard the happiest man. You gave him a great family and a great life. He loved you with all his heart. You gave your sons unconditional love. Thank you for touching our lives and letting us visit you and Auntie Jeannie for the summers as teenagers. Until we see each other again. I love you!

*Bernard and family. Rick and I are so saddened and sorry to hear about your loss. We know you two were soulmates. That was evident. You both would always visit w us after church service. Antoinette would always make sure to give her hugs and well wishes. She will be greatly missed. Prayers for strength to carry on without your love. The strength that only God can provide sent out to you Bernard. May the peace that surpasses all understanding be w all the broken-hearted.
