

Antoinette Galena

July 24, 1922 - June 13, 2017

Antoinette Galena, 94, was born July 24, 1922 in Brentwood, California, and was the daughter of Antonio Gallardo and Catalina Santos, who migrated from Madrid, Spain, to the United States. She is the mother of four sons, Vincent, Joseph, Manual, who are deceased and Jerry who is still with us. She is the grandmother and great great grandmother of numerous children. She came from a family of eight siblings six brothers and one sister. Antoinette was a very caring and generous person who volunteered her time to helping others in need throughout her life. She enjoyed buying clothes and she also loved jewelry knowing it was a gift from God, as all things are. She wore everything in moderation. Antoinette loved and enjoyed Jehovah's people very much.
