

Aurelio Sisneros

February 25, 1944 - September 5, 2024

Aurelio Sisneros, 80, Passed away on the morning of September 5, 2024. He was preceded in death by his parents, Aurelio Sr, and Maclovia Sisneros; and his son, Adrian Sisneros. He is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Dora Sisneros; Children, Aurelio (Suzette) Sisneros, Aaron Sisneros and Athena Sisneros. Grandchildren, Desiree, Derek, KaeLana (CJ), Danniell, Daliceia, Destyni, David, Josiah and DeLena. Great grandchildren, Lyona, Gavin, Dwayne, Ethan, Brantley, Ezekiel, Hezekiah, Elizabeth and Adriana. Siblings, Annie Cochran, Gilroy (Tina) Sisneros and Gilda (Floyd) Leyba. Sisters in law, Louise Selzer and Jamie Quintana; Numerous Nieces and Nephews, extended family, and friends. Aurelio passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of hard work, love, and a life well-lived. Born in New Mexico and raised with deep roots in Pueblo County, he dedicated much of his life to his community, serving as the Pueblo County Treasurer for five terms. He was the longest-running treasurer in Pueblo's history, a testament to his dedication and the trust the community placed in him. A true outdoorsman at heart, he found joy in the simplicity of nature. He was an innovative farmer who appreciated the land and its beauty. His passion for gold panning, fishing, hunting, and horseback riding was evident to all who knew him. He was the last real cowboy. Whether he was exploring the great outdoors or tending to his farm, he found peace and purpose in everything he did. In addition to his many talents, Aurelio was a gifted musician. He formed the band Los Fantasticos as well as the mariachi group Corazon. His leadership and musical talent were deeply valued. Mentoring many talented musicians, guiding them in the early stages of their careers and helping them find their own paths in the world of music. Beyond his public service and love for the outdoors, he was a successful entrepreneur who ventured into multiple avenues throughout his life. His entrepreneurial spirit and determination led him to various business opportunities, each one marked by his commitment to excellence and innovation. Whether in business or personal endeavors, his ability to see potential and take action was a hallmark of his character.
