“ My mom was Barbara's aunt. They spoke almost daily and when my mother passed away she wrote the most beautiful eulogy. Barbara continued to call my dad and he loved those calls. I will miss her kindness and concern for everyone. I'm sure that Barbara, my mom and Aunt Emily are all up their now with my grandma Elena laughing and telling stories.

“ I will never forget you, my very best friend and buddy. The long talks we had to comfort each other. We were like sisters. You showed me all your favorite recipes, and I always made you your potica loaf for Christmas. When we worked together years ago, we became close friends. You will always be with me in my memories. Your friend Connie Lempka.
