“ I was both Barbara's caregiver and friend and was privileged to share the last part of her life with her. She was funny, smart and very loyal to those she loved. She had an amazing memory and could recall countless stories of the interesting experiences she had in her lifetime. Barbara had a love for genealogy and we spent countless hours together tracing her family roots; a hobby which brought her a great sense of pride. I shall miss her sweet smile.

“ I had the opportunity to visit with Barbara at her apartment before COVID. She donated her grandfather's Penitente Prayer Book to FACC (genealogy group). I interviewed her for a short article about this wonderful gift to the group. She was, as always, hospitable and delightful. Eternal Peace. Mary Ellen Buriago
