“ Ben was my coworker and the life of our meetings. He would bring us breakfast every Tuesday to the meeting and would get a kick out of me fussing about gaining weight from eating donuts, and boudon. You are a great friend and brother and will be missed. You are gone but will never be forgotten love you my friend!

“ I was a young Captain when I first met LCPL Valle. Ben was still in his teens and about as fresh a Marine as I had ever seen. Everything was new to him and he was eager to learn and help and be a Marine. He didn't talk to me much at first but he smiled and laughed. He was a bright ray of sunshine. We were together for 3 years. From Hawaii, to Okinawa to Desert Shield/Storm. We lived in tents and trailers and, for more nights than any of us care to remember, without anything over our heads. Never once did I hear him complain. He made the most of it. I wish I could have had a hundred Marines like Ben. I saw Ben not long ago at an HMM-165 reunion. Again he filled the room with laughter and smiles. When he saw me for the first time in almost 30 years he took my hand and then grabbed and hugged me. His embrace was warm and welcoming. It was good watching him reunite with his old friends and sharing stories of the past. It was good to see all my Marines together. That will never happen again and for that I am so very sorry I will miss that smile.

Semper Fi, Ben.
