“ Beverly (I could have sworn I posted a memory for you but I looked and it's not here) You were my classmate and friend and I just recently visited with you and am blessed for that visit with you. I tried to talk u into going to our 50th class reunion. I said “ Bev we don't know if we'll make it to another one, we better go” U decited not too but everyone asked about you and were so sorry to have missed your happy face there. They all said wonderful things about you “ Bev was sweet, funny, cute, happy, nice. That's how your classmates remembered u”. You'll always be my yogi bear and I will always be your boo boo. We had great times, they will not be forgotten. Your friends will continue to talk about u and reminisce and love and miss u. You will always be remembered with love and joy in our hearts. To your Beautiful husband and loving family my deepest condolences. I know they are at a loss without you but they too will hold you closely in there hearts. Thanks for loving me too all my love Gloria (boo boo)
