

Brian Robert Danielson

November 8, 1967 - October 5, 2024

Brian Robert Danielson, 56, of Littleton (Pueblo) Colorado, passed away October 5, 2024. He was preceded in death by his beloved parents Robert “Babe” and LaDonna Danielson, and Norman Mickel. He is survived by his long-term life partner Krystal Fawkes of 15 years and sons, Dylan and Mason and his step son, Milo. Brian had a lot of family, many brothers and sisters in Minnesota including but not limited to cousins, nieces and nephews. Brian was friends to all. People were drawn to Brian’s personality and willingness to help others whether it be a ride, a helping hand or a job to someone in need. Brian took pride building in construction and bringing projects to life. When he wasn’t building greenhouses or working on his hot rods, Brian would get lost in his guitars and drums. Music was Brian’s passion as he spent most of his life singing and playing in bands, while sharing that same passion with his sons. Brian loved being on the long open road, riding his Harley’s and enjoying the freedom that it brought. Brian loved to collect rare coins, guitars, collectible cars and anything of value that he could pass down to his children. However, the biggest joy that Brian had always held close to his heart, was the greatest love that he had for his sons whom he cherished very much. Brian Danielson will always be remembered for his infectious smile and the way he always had a great way of making people feel special. Those close to him remember fondly the times spent together. Brian may no longer be here in the flesh, but Brian’s legacy and spirit will continue on through all those who love him. Private Service on Friday October 18, 2024 at 10am. Please join

“ I knew him as Speedy. We met when he and his band mates contacted me and asked me to produce them. I said I'd give them a listen and found myself at a falling down barn. So the guys came out and brought me up to the Jam room...in the barn...did I mention the barn was falling down? And, here we are in the loft of a barn that is actually 50% DOWN! YIKES! Well, turns out I thought they had potential! So agreed... To say they were rowdy would be the understatement of the year!

Such talent, such a shame they were such troubled souls...I did sound for them many times. They would often owe more than they got paid so would have to “Pay to play”. I could tell you horror stories...and tales that would make you laugh and cry...I did what I could for the boys, but they knew they couldn't be high or drunk, loaded...whatever. Just didn't fly with me. Gridlock was the band.

There was some collaboration with the Skaja brothers. The songs they did were ones they had played in at least a few gigs, in various configurations. Lots of Christian meanings ...one song in particular song, “The most high guy”...foretold of their connection with the good lord! In a way Dean helped save me...funny how that works.

Our condolences, may the good lord bless you and watch over Brian now.
