“ Carmel, words are so hard to express, in your passing. We will never forget you, and you will always be Sheik to me. I think about all the memories we had together working from broken ribs, to the day Cindy came up to you and said she was having a baby, that was Boo-Boo, from your football games and to our famous evictions, Rest in peace my Brother, I will see you on the other side.

“ Carmel, You were and always will be MY one and only true love. I miss you so much, I feel like this is a bad dream and I want to wake up and it not be real. I'm trying to be strong because I know that is what you would want, somedays are harder than others. I promised you that I would not fall apart, even though I want to, I will be strong. My love, I know how hard you fought through the pain, the sickness, for us, the kids and I, thank you. Thank you for giving us more time with you, creating more memories. I am happy you are no longer suffering and sick,or having to go to dialasys anymore. Rest in Peace now my love, God will give us strength. I love you baby, forever ❤️ and ever.

“ Ohhh my brother it breaks my heart to see this. It breaks my heart even more knowing you are gone and I will never get to see your warm smile. It does give me comfort knowing you are no longer suffering. You will be missed more than you will ever know. I promise to keep an eye on your soul mate. You both raised some beautiful children. They will watch over here. Rest in peace brother knowing she will be okay. She has faith in our lord. He will give her the strength she will need. I love you and thank you for everything. You were always there to greet me with open arms and always had a seat at the table for me. I will miss more than I can express. Rest easy brother. We got it from here. See ya on the flip side.
