“ R.I.P. Carmen I can picture you now having a cigarette and watching the novelas. You probably had a delicious Mexican supper with Your “hitos” Dubois and Shannon. I’m so glad I had the honor of meeting such a beautiful and special lady. I know your children are hurting right now, especially Kiani. Her heart is so broken right now. So for now it’s not goodbye, it’s see you later Carmen. God bless you❤️💋😭

“ Auntie was the sweetest. I wish I could have seen her one more time just to tell her I love her. She always said, "Hi hita, how are you?" Love you auntie always and forever.

“ I remember when aunt Carmen was into crafts and made potpourri holders that looked like pies. You would place it on your stove and when the stove was in use it would fill the air with the smell. I thought that was so cool. She always called say "hita". Love and prayers to my cousins. I wish I could be there today.
