“ Many years ago while sitting with Mr. John Snarich at a local restaurant, Cheryl walked up and sat with us briefly. She chatted with her dad and her father introduced me to her. Quite some time later i bumped into Cheryl and she immediately greeted me and called me by name. As the years went by every time i bumped into her she was always the nicest sweetest lady to me and my wife, always very respectful and friendly. I consider it an honor to have known Cheryl and other members of her family. Anymore really good people like the Snarich family are getting harder and harder to find. It is because of Cheryl's kindness and very friendly treatment towards me that i will always remember her in my nightly prayers. May she rest in peace. Elberto EL Lopez
