

Celestino Martinez

April 27, 1924 - April 5, 2019

Celestino Martinez, 94, of Pueblo, CO went to be with the Lord on April 5, 2019. Celestino was born in Monte Vista, CO to Lino and Doloritas Martinez. He was preceded in death by his spouse of 70 years, Jennie (Juanita) Martinez on March 27 2019; also infant son; brothers, Moises and Joe; sisters; infant sister and Carmen. Celestino is survived by his three children, Dolores (Danny) Garcia, Nora (Duncan) McAuliffe and Tino (Susan) Martinez; 7 grandchildren,, 11 great grandchildren; 1 great-great grandson; sisters, Angela and Perfy; numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Celestino and Jennie resided in Pagosa Springs until 1972. There he worked for the School District, was a hot shotter for the forest service and also was a line man for the electric company. In Pueblo he was employed by School District 70 until his retirement. He kept busy helping the community by delivering meals on wheels, school crossing guard, visiting friends in nursing homes and attending Adoration of blessed sacrament of St. Mary's Several times a week and also attending Masses and being an Usher for many years. He loved his church, family, and cousins he was raised with. He was known for his love of cars. He would buy one, personalize it and trade it in for another. He always had the best cars. Celestino will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him dearly. He is now reunited with his love Jennie Martinez.
