

Charles Richard Clayton

May 1, 1953 - April 30, 2026

Charles Richard Clayton “Jaws”, 72, of Pueblo, CO born May 1, 1953 and passed away on April 30, 2026, surrounded by family. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Jesucita Gardner; parents, Charles and Ruth Clayton; and close friend, Greg “Griz” Robinson. He is survived by his children, Andrea (Ben) Casaus, Elia Sandoval, AnnaLea Ruybal, and Isaac Ruybal; his “little girl”, Lanna Rain; grandchildren, Martin, Joseph (Kaci), Elizabeth, River (Flor), Clay, Malachi, Lestat and Priscilla; great grandchildren, Kingston, Levi and Eduardo; brothers, “Buddy” Lamaak and “their son” Hunter Lamaak and Michael (Mary) Clayton; nephew, Nathan (Bethany) Clayton; niece, Danette (Steve) Bostock; and numerous extended family and friends, including Frannie, Hawk-eye, Bulwinkle, Denise, Tony, Joe K., Frankie, Spudly, Trapper, Jeff, Smitty, Johnny, Terry, Spike, Dee, Bruce, Jimmy and many others. Rich enjoyed being outdoors, riding his horses, sky diving, fishing, camping and riding his motorcycle. There wasn’t an adventure he’d say no to or a person he would not help. A good friend said, “He’d give you the shirt off his back, it would be sleeveless, but he’d give it.” Charles will be deeply missed by all who loved him.

“ I'm so sorry to read about this loss. So many memories with Rich from having him as a classmate at Central High School and as a fellow teammate playing football. I always enjoyed his humor and the way he treated everybody. He was a class act and I'm proud to have been part of his life. With respect and sincere condolences to all.
