“ Thank you Papa Chas for being a hard worker and a dedicated man all your life. My honey Stephen has learned to be a great father, husband, son, brother, friend and colleague because of it. My memories are of your quick wit, humor, wry smile and funny stories. Your kids have inherited all those traits ten fold. You'll be missed more than words can say. Rest in peace my father-in-law. We love you.

“"Uncle Charlie" is how I knew you, also as my Godfather. I remember a plastic china set that you gave me when I was about 6 or 7 years old and I served spaghetti to the neighborhood kids. I felt so classy and important. I have no idea what ever happened to it, but I will never forget it. I remember all the teasing that ended in tears, and for that I have learned to have a tough skin and to laugh at myself. I remember countless summers at your house, the State Fair, parking cars, camping out in your yard, stealing your cigarettes, watching Broncos games (win or lose), chasing bats, my list of memories goes on and on. Looking back, I can see many of your traits in me. . . thank you. God bless you <3

“My grandpa I love you and know that you are looking down on all of us. I also know your proud of the family you helped make. My most cherished memory of you was on my graduation day you laughed and said you never doubted me even though it would've been easy to. You told me hard work now pays off later and you were so right. I love you.

“Rest easy mr. Perez and I too have a fond memory of you that makes me laugh to this day..when I once knocked on your door for help because a neighborhood kid was being mean and pushed me into a car, and you replied " well how fast was it going" and I said it wasnt. And you laughed so hard....ha ha ha

“ Bye my Dad,

I love you so much Father you not only taught me how to be a man but also how to be a good human being to those around me. I have so many memories from my childhood that stand out in my mind but my favorite memory was and always will be how you used to let the three of us younger set of triplets color on your arm tattoos while you fell asleep. You showed me that love is tough and respect is earned and I have a work ethic to be desired by everyone all thanks to you. I'm going to miss your little apartment on Moore Ave. and the tidy way you kept everything in its place. Dad you will always be in my heart and I hope to pass on what you taught me to my kids so that they can be the kind of humans I want in the world around me. I love you Daddy you meant the world to 1209 Euclid and I am happy that your mind and your pain is now at ease.

Love.
