“ My Brother Chris was a great pool player, I remember one time we were at a bar off Indiana exit and started playing pool, I must of played him 10 to 13 times and he beat me every time, I tried my best each time but to no avail, he told me the only way to get better is to play against a better player, watch and observe and learn from your mistakes I enjoyed the beating I got cause I learned a lot from playing him Love and Miss You My Brother may you RIP

“ Our hearts are breaking  . We are trying really hard to make it make sense. I personally am very grateful for my brother Chris. When he was driving long hauls in his semi he would always stop by my house and have coffee with me when he got back in town. We would catch up and he would play with my grandsons. I will miss his phone calls to check on me and my family, or if he wasn't feeling well I would call and check on him. He will certainly be missed at our family bar-b-ques and get together. I am also thankful we ended every phone call or when leaving each other with "I Love You". Brother till we meet again...I love you always and forever !
