“ I am saddened to hear about the death of Christine. And I am sad that I somehow missed the news of what had happened. I wish I could have attended the service. I did not find out until October 21.

she died while on duty and serving the people of Colorado. I watched the service online. A very beautiful service.

may you rest in peace Christine.

“ Chris is such a beautiful person inside and out. One of the best moms I know and a devoted wife. When Chris loves she loves with her whole heart. I will dearly miss her and our lunch dates, the crazy stories, the laughter and the tears we all have shared. She has touched so many lives in such an incredible way! I was blessed to have her as my friend and to be able to have so many wonderful memories with her. Chris will always be in my heart ❤️

“ Chris and worked together at dairy queen! So long ago ..but this woman you could meet her one time and remember that beautiful face, we had great times even at work so long ago..she made herself such a success,her career! So proud of her,we lost touch after a few years going to different jobs ,I still would see her everywhere...and we would catch up on our lives. I'm gonna miss this young beautiful hearted person. Lord Jesus has an Angel none of will forget.to the family my condolences to you.it was an honor to know your mama,wife, sister,daughter,and all around friend.
