

Christopher Lee Lopez

May 7, 2023 - June 15, 2024

Christopher Lee Lopez, 64, of Pueblo, walked away with the angels on June 15, 2024. Though a skeptic, he hoped he would see his mom and dad soon. He frequently expressed that he did not understand the cruelty and pain in this world, as the truth was not to be ignored, though disturbing, uncomfortable and sad it was the truth, not him. Still, he found so much beauty in this world: music, words, comedy, sports. He loved his mother and father endlessly and glorified their selflessness and integrity. When he learned of his cancer diagnosis, he declared he could not take it personally and was not afraid of his death. Accordingly, he chose to summon himself with the aid of medication. When increasing illness beset him and the angel whispered that the time was now approaching, he urged, "Don't grieve for me. I consider myself to have been an extremely lucky person. I received more love and care than I deserved, more than I earned and a questioning intellect that drove me with exhilaration and honor every day of my life. Have a glass of wine, wake up and see what is around you. Make the world a better place to live, don't just live in it." Christopher is preceded in death by his parents, Raul and Sophie Lopez as well as his maternal and paternal grandparents, aunts, and uncles. He is survived by his sister, Cathryn (Michael) Sanchez, brother, Craig (Roberta) Lopez, and sister Cynthia (Robert) Pacheco; nieces, Alicia Sanchez, Jade (Tyler) Kersey, Haven Lopez, Jordan Pacheco, and Harper Sanchez; nephew, Drew Lopez; and his dog Lola. He will be so missed by all who loved him and who were blessed to have him in their lives.
