

Clarence A. Sisnroy

February 12, 1928 - January 8, 2022

Clarence A, Sisnroy, 93, of Pueblo, born February 12, 1928, went to be with the Lord on January 8, 2022. He was preceded in death by his son, Michael. He is survived by his wife of almost 70 years, Mary; sons, Anthony (Ardie), Larry, Danny (Ceci), and Pete (Maribeth); numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and god children. Clarence grew up on a ranch near Walsenburg, Colorado and graduated from Walsenburg High School. He was a proud Veteran of both the United States Merchant Marines and Army serving during World War II and the Korean War. After his time in the service Clarence and Mary settled in Pueblo to raise their family. He began a career at CF&I which he retired from. He served as Eucharistic Minister and Usher at Holy Family Catholic Church and belonged to the American Legion Post 203 where he served as Chaplain. Clarence enjoyed traveling, fishing and camping, More than anything he loved spending time with his family. He will be forever loved and deeply missed by those he leaves behind. Rosary. 10:00 am followed by, Mass of Resurrection, 11:00 am, Tuesday, January 25, 2022. Service may be viewed through Live stream on Facebook at Romero Family Funeral Home Pueblo and YouTube at Romero Family Funeral Home Pueblo