

Clifford Ray Duran

April 13, 1955 - July 4, 2025

Clifford Ray Duran, 70, of Pueblo, Colorado, passed away July 4, 2025. Born to Willene Vigil and Edward Elias Duran Jr. on April 13, 1955, in Grand Junction, Colorado, he is survived by his two children, Christopher Ray (Becky), and Mercedes Kathryn; and his former wife, Cassy, who all reside in Pennsylvania. He is also survived by his brother, Daniel Duran, and mother Willene Quiroz, who reside at the family home in Pueblo, as well as many nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by his father Edward, and brother Richard, Cliff graduated from Pueblo South High in 1973 after which he enlisted in the US Army, serving as a Military Police Officer and as a member of the Commander in Chief US Army Europe and 7th Army's Honor Guard in Heidelberg, West Germany (1973-1976), ending his six plus years in the US Army at Fort Dix, New Jersey in October 1979. Cliff loved to fish everywhere there was a fresh-water lake, especially when he lived in Colorado, and was a huge fan of the Denver Broncos despite their ups and downs. He will be cremated, and no services will be scheduled. He will be missed by those who loved him.
