“ I love and miss you sister so much I was very proud of you for being you. You are missed by many and loved by lots. We are broken that you are gone but I'm happy you found true love with a guy named Chris. We will keep your son really close and watch him grow into a fine young man because we know you're in him. Love you lots and you will never be forgotten

“ My deepest condolences to crystals son and family. It breaks my heart to see such an amazing person go away so young.. I had the honor of working with her at the Villa here in pueblo. She always wore her smile.. Her bright colorful makeup and her awesome personality. Even when something bothered her she still stood positive.. Rest in peace Crystal it was an honor to have known you!!
