“ Daneil, I met you in one of the craziest places.. You carried our friendship to the streets and were the same kind, loving, understanding women I have ever met. I will always love you and have a place in my heart for you. I know how much you love your girls and parents.. May your journey be blessed and may God Bless your family

“ Daniel you will always have a place in my heart! You were there for me when nobody else was, took me into your home and treated me just like I was a part of the family. I know Rena, you, and I shared some pretty crazy but fun times. You will be greatly missed by all of us including my husband John. Until we meet again dance with the angels!
