

David W. Harville

September 18, 1962 - August 2, 2022

On August 2nd, 2022, David W. Harville went quietly into that good night, and into the waiting arms of our Lord and Savior. David will always be fondly remembered as a quiet soul and gentle spirit. Dave's is a life well lived. He was fiercely proud of his time on the high seas, serving aboard the historical USS Midway in the U.S. Navy, with the V-1 DAWGS. His honorable service is a reflection of his devotion to this country. Those that knew and loved David, fondly remember him as a person that had a quick wit that would leave us in stitches, rolling on the flooring laughing, or a riveting storyteller, that would captivate us unendingly. A true cowboy at heart, David leaves behind a lasting legacy of cowboy poetry, and songs, providing just a glimpse into the soul of a cowboy and all written and performed from the heart. Whether on a horse of the two-wheel kind, eighteen-wheel kind or four-legged kind, the desire to conquer the open road, explore the unyielding frontier, or foretell of his next adventure, the legend of the "Broke Rider" will forever rumble amongst the clouds. David was known to be kind, soft spoken, possessing quiet strength, strongly convicted, quick to smile, and always willing. Most of all David was 100% David. Ride in Peace Broke Rider. Romans 8:18

David is lovingly survived by his children; Jeff Harville, Jessica Ikeda, and Rosie Levitt. His parents; A. Noble (Janet Noble, stepmom), and Deanna Gale Seaman Harville.
