

David Christopher Lee Marez

November 29, 2005 - June 6, 2022

David Christopher Lee Marez, our beloved son, born November 29th 2005, passed away unexpectedly on June 6th 2022. David is survived by his parents Tina & Christopher Marez, sisters Isabel & Chevelle Marez, brother Jeramiah Nival, grandmothers Amparo Figueroa & Florence Marez, grandfather Tony Figueroa, step grandfather Ralph Miera, and great grandmother Zoraida Wildarczyk. David is also survived by his B.F.A.M. Mathew Vancea, close cousin Dominic Ayala, and special friends, Braden & Brennan Medina, Trish Montoya, Jeramiah Anaya, and Zach Wermers. David also leaves behind numerous friends and family members. David was preceded in death by his uncle Jacob Marez, grandfather Dave Marez, great grandparents Manuelita & Cristobal Marez, and great grandfather Mario (Louise) Figueroa. David had a great passion for life, a drive and desire to enjoy every moment, and the motivation to make things happen. He was ahead of his time. From early on, David took an interest in math & science, he grew to excel in those areas and had hopes of becoming a neurosurgeon. David enjoyed video gaming of the sorts and listening to music of many genres. He loved working out with his best friend/ brother Matt and they spent many hours working to achieve their ideal physique & strength. David spent an unbelievable amount of time making unforgettable memories with his friends every chance he could. David was adventurous & outgoing, driven & courageous, kind & helpful, loud & blunt & real, smart & wise, good & true, strong & responsible, and David was always happy. David found great joy in making people laugh & smile, he was exciting & fun, and had a very refreshing sense of humor. He was so helpful & willing to accommodate others in need, without hesitation. David was outspoken and keen to share his knowledge, often creating a friendly argument and he had recently expressed his liking for debate in school. David had just finished his sophomore year at South High. David shared his life with his beautiful sisters, Isabel & Chevelle, often having intimate conversations with them, reflecting on the past, present, and future. He was always hopeful everyone would be happy. David was happiest while with his friends and while spending quality time with his family over a good meal. David's smile and joyful presence will be missed without measure and his friends & family will forever cherish the memories he's left for us to keep.
