“ Never in my wildest dreams did I ever think I would be writing here for you, Davey. Knowing you over the years let me see a side of you only a few people knew. I wish everyone had a chance to know the beautiful soul that you kept from the the world to experience. Thank you for the laughs, days on the ballfield, and everything in between. I will miss your sarcasm, your random singing moments, but most importantly your presence. Thank you for allowing me to know and be a part of your life for as long as I did. May you rest in peace my dear friend.

To the Noga family. My deepest condolences to you all. May the lord shed strength and comfort in your time of need. May you always remember the good times shared to keep Davey's memory alive.
