

Denise Shannon Lucero-Hernandez

September 13, 1972 - November 13, 2015

Denise Shannon Lucero, 43, went to be with the Lord on November 13, 2015. She is survived by her fiancé, Ron Apodaca; children, Andrew Lucero, Marisa Lucero, Michael (Jasmine) Hernandez and Carol Hernandez; grandchildren Elijah Robles, Layla Hernandez and Santos Hernandez; parents, Robert and Geneva Lucero; siblings, Bobby (Debbie) Lucero, Ted (Dave) Lucero, Tim (Liz) Lucero, Cynthia (Henry Martinez) Castro and Jason (Sherry) Lucero; godchildren, Andres Castro, Damien Lucero and Azariah Lucero; numerous nieces, nephews, extended family, friends, best friend, Yolanda Mercado and special nephew, Estevan Martinez. Denise loved to dance and listen to music, watch movies (mostly scary), fishing, camping and trips to Cripple Creek. She also enjoyed making new deserts every year for holidays, but most importantly, Denise loved spending time with her family, and was especially close to her sister Cynthia. She was deeply loved and will be truly missed by her family. Special thanks goes to Denise's friends Gerald and Geraldine for the special care they gave, as well as, her mother-in-law Kathy Apodaca for always being there for her. The family would also like to give special thanks to their aunts and cousins for helping with all of the food for the family during this difficult time.

“ *Prayers for the family and friends of Denise.
She was loved and will be greatly missed..
Death is only a bridge...
we all have to cross, but if you remember that the bridge connect you still.*
