

Derek Montoya

January 8, 2020

Derek Montoya, 34, of Pueblo fulfilled his journey here on earth on January 8, 2020. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Toby & Frances Baca; uncle, Paul Montoya; and fur baby, Kipper. He is survived by his mother, Tracy M. Montoya; siblings, Robert Rocha and Amanda (Devin) Raider; nieces and nephews, Bailey, Avery and Elijah; aunt, Amadita Baca; uncle, Robert Baca; cousins, Anikka Baca, Cheyene Howe and Amber Baca; fur babies, Dake and Foster; numerous other family; Southwest family; extended special friends. Derek was an avid Broncos fan and enjoyed cheering on all the Colorado teams. He enjoyed traveling and music, attending concerts whenever he could. He had a great sense of humor and was very intelligent, affectionately known by family and friends as Dr. Phil. More than anything he loved spending time with family and friends. He will be forever loved and missed by all who were blessed to know him. Viewing, Wednesday, 1-5, Romero Chapel. Memorial Service, 10:00 am, Friday, St. Joseph Church.

Previous Events

Visitation

JAN 15. 1:00 PM - 5:00 PM (MT)

Romero Family Funeral Home
110 Cleveland St.
Pueblo, CO 81004
(719) 583-1313
romeroffh@live.com

Memorial Service

JAN 17. 10:00 AM (MT)

St. Joseph Catholic Church
1145 S. Aspen Road
Pueblo, CO 81006

Tribute Wall

JP

“ I send my prayers to this family during such a difficult time. Grieving for someone you love is so difficult. There are no words to describe the loss. But know, there are families praying for you and your recent losses. On January 8th, Heaven got two new Bronco fans.

---

JP - January 28, 2020 at 11:41 PM