She is survived by her daughters Dina (Cindy Reyna) Godinez and Deborah (James) Roukema; her dog Juju; grandchildren Daniel (Jazmine) Hernandez, Dominic (Brandi) Hernandez, Marysa Valdez; great grandchildren Eli Hernandez, Dax Hernandez, Kai Hernandez; brothers and sisters, Larry (Pat) Rael; Brenda Cornell; Hazel Rael; Tommy (Sarah) Rael; Rick (Eileen) Rael; Erwin (Joy) Rael; Veronica (Randy) Cruz; brother-in-law Joe (Marie) Godinez. She was a devout Christian and member of the Family Worship Center where she was involved in the card ministry, a greeter at Sunday services, a mentor at FWC and Caring Pregnancy Center. Along with her career she was a loving and attentive wife and mom. She cared deeply for all her family members and friends and was a great support to her grandchildren. Her husband introduced her to football, fishing, hunting, golf, and camping at San Isabel Lake where she fell in love with the mountains. She loved traveling with her husband and family to different destinations. Mom loved cooking special meals for different holidays for her family. There was nothing that she couldn't cook and many times improved recipes with her special ingredient, "Love." She passed on her many life lessons and always told us to keep God in our lives. She always prayed for others daily. We couldn't ask for a better mom in our lives.

“ Auntie And I found out years ago that we had the same hands. I am eternally thankful and blessed by her interactions with my dad her brother (Tommy). She was instrumental in helping him decide to seek care and following through to make sure he was caring for his health. I could almost hear her sweet voice. All my aunts and uncles have such a great sense of humor and a strong bond. Dance with uncle Pete you're United again and I know you are in endless worship in heaven with uncle Allen, grandma Villa , granpo Tito, granpo Max , and gramma D and my precious Danielle 🍷🍷
Praying for the girls and all who love you , you're a beautiful reminder of our legacy and Covenant with Jesus Christ 🍷🍷❤️

“ Diana was one of my dearest friends!
She was always there for me when I needed her.
We spent a lot of time having dinners & breakfasts with Diana & Pete !
They convinced us to go on two cruises with them, when my husband had said he would never go on a cruise!
Diana showed light & love everywhere she went & babies were a magnet to her..she never passed one up without going over & saying hello 🍷 We miss both of them so much!
