“ Oh my friend, how I miss you! So happy you were able to see your goddaughter in her wedding dress before your final days. You should see her daughter now. She reminds me a little of you. Keep dancing in the streets of heaven!

“ I have many memories I can share about Diana(Momma), but one of my most memorable memories that I will remember forever would be graduation day. She made sure me and Daniel looked top notch. She had our slacks and dress us shirts laid out and ironed ready for us. Before we left the house she looked us over making sure our ties were nice and tight, our clips were good, gave us hugs, and the keys to her car! I can remember the day as if was yesterday! Thank you so much for everything you've have done for me momma, I love you and will forever remember you and how you welcomed me as one of your own kids. Diana was always so heart warming and the happiest human beings I know! She watched me grow up into a man, and seen me start my family. I am truly grateful to have known you Diana! Tell Roland Hi for me, I love you guys💙

“ Anytime my auntie would cook ribs she would make sure she called me to come over and eat and if I was too busy she would make sure to save me a plate and if you’ve ever had my aunties ribs I’m sure we would all agree they were the best. Anytime I was around my auntie she’d always put a big smile on my face and half the time I wouldn’t be able to breathe because she’d have me and Daniel laughing our butts off and half the time she would be joking about me and Daniel. We would always stay up late just sitting there talking for hours and hours about anything and everything. She always treated me like I was one of her kids and was always there for me if i ever needed someone too talk too. I love you so much Auntie❤️

“ I am so, so sorry to hear about my amiga Diana. Your mom was such a strong and independent woman. She fought hard and always had such a beautiful laugh and smile on her face. My heart is truly crushed for you all. She absolutely adored her kids and especially her grandkids. She sent me pictures of both Nicole and Daniels babies and told me so proudly “amiga” these are my newest grandkids. Such a proud grandma. God bless you all. R.I.P. amiga until we meet again🙏❤️
