“ My Dearest Tia Bien - primos y primas

My Tia I am sorry to see you go for I will miss talking to you. Our conversations could last for hours. You were the most interesting conversationalist. I remember my visits to your house - always looking forward to coming to Pueblo to see you and my Tio Levi. Also my primos of course. But mostly you as the outspoken lady that made an impression in my life. My mom was a soft spoken lady but you were the opposite. Saying what you meant and not really being influenced by what other people thought. You loved my Tio Levi and were never afraid to show it to your Sugar or anyone else. I loved your style and you. You were the only mom figure that I counted on after my mom was gone. Your thoughts of yesteryear never faltered - your adventures with my mom were vivid in my mind. As time went on I saw you as a strong spirit full of God's love and knew your were saved. My Tia pray to the Lord for me that I too will attain your spirit in Jesus Christ Your nephew Ross Anthony Lovato
