

Dora Salazar

August 2, 1921 - November 1, 2015

Dora Salazar, 94, of Pueblo Colorado, passed away on November 1, 2015. She was born in Fowler, Colorado on August 2, 1921. Predeceased by husband, Manuel Salazar; parents, Edward and Albina Apodaca; siblings, Joe, Charlie, Felix, Walter, Richard, Edward Jr. and Dorothy Apodaca. Dora is survived by her children, Gerald (Daisy) Salazar, Luella (Jim) Kraft, Andres (Paris) Salazar, Manuel Jr. (Linda) Salazar; 22 grandchildren; numerous great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren; God daughter, Melinda Garcia; sister, Rosie Mares and brother Arthur Apodaca. Dora enjoyed being a homemaker, always making sure her children felt her love, and putting their welfare above everything else. She was a great cook, provider, protector and God fearing woman. When she could she would provide assistance to the poor and needy. In essence, she was an obedient, loving daughter, wonderful wife and outstanding mother and grandmother. Dora also enjoyed listening to music, attending church on Sunday and praying the Rosary on a daily basis.
