Dulcinea Eduenia Gonzales, 86, of Pueblo, died peacefully in her sleep on December 1, 2020. She was born on April 6, 1934 in Tecolote, New Mexico. She was preceded in death by her husband of 66 years Eloy Ernest Gonzales, her parents, Cruz and Clarita Martinez, siblings Mabel Vigil, Cruz Martinez Jr. & Louie Martinez. Dulcinea (also affectionately known as Nellie) was a devoted wife and loving mother who raised 4 beautiful children. She was a fabulous homemaker who was very fond of crocheting. She loved the Bible and the promises therein, including the coming earthly paradise. She greatly treasured the words of Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Along with Isaiah 25:8 "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces..." She wanted others to know these wonderful promises as well, that is why one of her greatest joys was spending time in the volunteer ministry to help others come to understand the Bible. She will be forever loved and deeply missed by all those she leaves behind. Cremation has taken place and per her request, no memorial service will take place.
