“ Martha and Christina, My heart is with you today with the loss of your Mom. Emilia and I shared many wonderful times together as we worked together at Otero Junior College Child Care and Preschool. She had a wonderful sense of humor, loved working with children and was a hard-working teacher in my pre-school classes. We continued our professional work together as she became another important part of Early Childhood professionals as the Director of the Santo Nino Child. We continued to be friends as we both retired, and I know her intense love for all her children and grandchildren will live in your hearts and memories forever. I will always have Emilia's memories close to my heart. Charlyn Mascarenas
