“ I met Eunice when I was 2 years old. My family moved next door to the Garcia family on West 17th st. After we moved years later, our family stayed close to Eunice until now. She was so blunt, she cracked me up!! She was never mean. One year she was helping my Mom get food for our family from any charity that she could. They'd all say no and tell her to call the Salvation Army. It was very annoying to me. I was 15 at the time and had a very loving heart. Just kidding I was evil. The next call she made, I listened in on another phone. Right as they started to tell her to check with the Salvation Army, I pipped in and said SALVATION ARMY!!! LOL it actually was SO funny, as far as I could tell because I almost peed myself while I was laughing. Interestingly enough, that particular charity somehow found a basket of food for our family. Eunice and I would retell that story for years afterwards. I'm going to miss her sense of humor the most. When she is resurrected we're going to have a picnic with my Mom. Rev 21:3,4
